

FRESH FRUIT

Painting with a contemporary realism, Frederic Choisel introduces attitude and edge to the still life. Crisp reflections, vibrant colors and sharply defined shapes give the traditional fruit bowl a contemporary quality. His work is showcased as part of "Fresh Faces," which opens with a reception from 7 to 9 p.m. June 3 and continues through June 30 at Wilde Meyer Gallery in Scottsdale. Pictured is "Large Exotic Fruit Bowl," an oil on panel. For information, call (480) 945-2323.

gallery specializes in Western art by now-deceased artists.

- Black Mountain Gallery—36889 N. Tom Darlington Rd., Carefree, (480) 575-7999. Contemporary, Russian and Southwestern original art is featured, plus giclées, fine jewelry and furniture from around the world.
- Blue Coyote Gallery—38252 N. Jacqueline Dr., Cave Creek, www.aztecartworks.com, (480) 488-2334. Western and contemporary Southwestern fine furniture and art.
- Blue Sage Gallery—34505 N. Scottsdale Rd., Scottsdale, (480) 945-3385. Native American artifacts, contemporary paintings and jewelry.
- Bret Rowe Modern Art—7077 E. Main St., Scottsdale, www.bretrowe.com, (480) 596-3933. This modern art space features the work of painter Bret Rowe, who creates dramatic, graphic compositions that merge text with historical, cultural, creative and entertainment icons.

- By Word of Mouth—23425 N. Scottsdale Rd., (480) 419-1979. Contemporary gallery featuring blown glass, raku ceramics, fiber art, vegetal-dyed wool rugs, artist-made jewelry, accent furniture, sculpture and architectural wall art.
- Calvin Charles Gallery—4201 N. Marshall Way, Scottsdale, www.calvincharles.com, (480) 421-1818. The gallery showcases fine international contemporary art and sculpture by established and emerging artists from diverse ethnic and cultural influences, complemented by select Asian antiques.
- Casa de Artistas—7058 E. Main St., Scottsdale, (480) 423-1777. A cultural blend of unique furnishings, accessories and fine art is featured, including adobe panels by Marcela Oyakawa, steel furniture by Mike Chumbley and sculpture in stainless steel by Jeff Laing.

- Cervini Haas Gallery—4200 N. Marshall Way, Scottsdale, (480) 429-6116. The gallery showcases new prints and paintings by Seiko Tachibana and new paintings from southern France by Jean Larson, through June 19.
- Charles H. Pabst Gallery—7021 E. Main St., Scottsdale, (480) 874-4780. The gallery showcases Southwest landscapes and contemporary art by Charles H. Pabst, watercolor and oil florals by Andrea de Kerpely-Zak and Cara Moran, Native American subjects by John Yaeger, and sculpture by Andreas Schwab, Jess Davilla and Ron Stewart.
- Chiaroscuro—7160 E. Main St., Scottsdale, www.chiaroscuroaz.com, (480) 429-0711. Featuring contemporary works by established and emerging artists in all mediums.
- Cline Fine Art—4200 N. Marshall Way, Scottsdale, www.clinefineart.com, (480) 941-1811. The gallery specializes in 20th-century American art, with a focus on early modernism and regionalism, as well as contemporary paintings and sculpture.
- Colores by Wilde Meyer—7100 Main St., Scottsdale, (480) 947-1489. Fine art and crafts are featured along with antiques and furniture, including work by Linda CarterHolman, Charles Davison, Jim Buddish, Mitch Henderson, and Martha Wolf, plus the famous Poupee Millet dolls.
- Creekside Gallery of Park City—4200 N. Marshall Way, Scottsdale, (480) 421-1888. Featuring original oil paintings, watercolors, ceramics, mixed media and sculpture by major North American and European contemporary artists.
- The Cultural Exchange Gallery—4235 N. Marshall Way, Scottsdale, www.theculturalexchange.com, (480) 941-0900. Specializing in representing contemporary artists, fine art resales and leasing fine art.
- Danela Gallery—6166 N. Scottsdale Rd., www.maygallery.com, (480) 922-1801. Kent R. Wallis showcases his latest collection of paintings in "Summer Serenade," June 25-July 15, with an artist's reception from 6 to 8 p.m. June 25.
- Di Tommaso Galleries—7141 E. Main St., Scottsdale, (480) 945-9888. Original paintings and bronzes of representational Western, landscape, figurative, wildlife art and antique Indian artifacts are featured.
- Duley-Jones Gallery—7100 E. Main St., Scottsdale, (480) 945-8475. "Marie Brumund—Some Like It Hot," June 3-30,

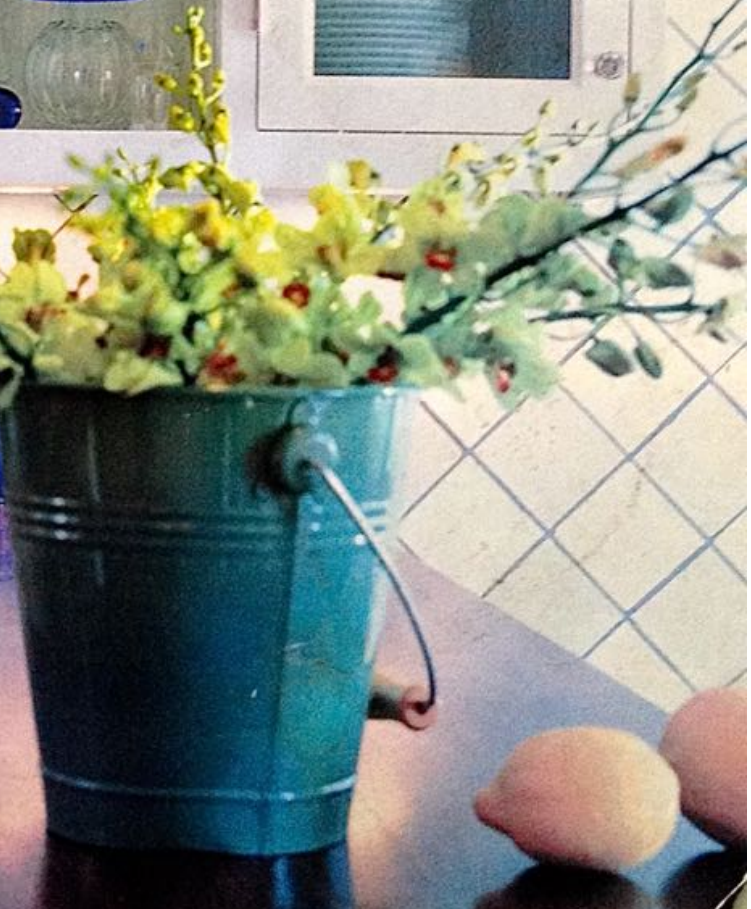

Painting with a contemporary realism, Frederic Choisel introduces attitude and edge to the still life. Crisp reflections, vibrant colors and sharply defined shapes give the traditional fruit bowl a contemporary quality. His work is showcased as part of "Fresh Faces," which opens with a reception from 7 to 9 p.m. June 3 and continues through June 30 at Wilde Meyer Gallery in Scottsdale. Pictured is "Large Exotic Fruit Bowl," an oil on panel. For information, call (480) 945-2323.

SPECIAL KITCHEN ISSUE

PHOENIX HOME & GARDEN

THE MAGAZINE OF SOUTHWEST LIVING

45
IDEAS THAT SIZZLE

JUNE 2004 $4.95 06>
0 74470 63104 0
www.phymag.com